EYES ONLY

SUMMARY

Senior, trusted officer holding the money and the org chart for off-books operations. To this readership: a model mandarin, cold, exact, free of the field officer's heat. Authority over clandestine financing and tasking makes him a node through which most sensitive product passes.

BACKGROUND

Career intelligence bureaucrat. Came up through financing and order-of-battle desks in the post-Soviet realignment of the early 1990s. Restructured the off-books financing function under his own sign-off; signatures and audits route to him. No family of operational note on file.

PROFILE / WORLDVIEW

Treats nations as weather and loyalty as owed to whatever structure outlasts the storm. Self-described as feeling nothing he cannot account for. Believes his own perfection; this is assessed as his sole exploitable trait, since a man certain of zero error does not watch for the one reader who has learned to read him.

CURRENT MATTER (2026)

Positioned at the centre of the present narcotics-financing case spanning the Northeast corridors, the seized Golden Crescent pipeline, and the Bangkok/Dubai laundering rail. Uses control of money and tasking to steer Colonel Kaul's inquiry toward field officer Fateh, on the stated logic that collapsing the lure protects the wider effort.

PRIOR MATTER (2008)

Liaised on the inception-era inquiry opened by R&AW analyst 'J', who had detected a foreign network forming. The inquiry closed without product. Subject's exact knowledge of how it closed is recorded below at restricted tier.

KNOWN ASSOCIATES

COL. KAUL serving counterpart; being steered, believes Subject a sound ally and patron.
FATEH field officer; designated target of Subject's misdirection, cast as the threat.
ANALYST 'J' (DECEASED, 2008) former analyst, professional contact; case closed under ene
THE PRINCIPAL [REDACTED] external handling authority; channel and identity withheld.

TRAINING

Civil Service intelligence track: financing, hawala and trade-based laundering flows, order-of-battle, and the tradecraft of money rather than the field. Decades of committee work, vetting panels, and audit sign-off have made him fluent in how a trail is built and, more usefully to him, how one is dissolved inside legitimate process.

CAPABILITIES

Operates entirely through structure: budget lines, tasking orders, archival findings, and the placement of inquiries. Can bury a domestic trail, redirect an investigation, and end a career without leaving a fingerprint. Assessed as incapable of and uninterested in direct violence – he cannot pull a trigger and has never needed to; the instrument is always another's hand.

OPERATIONAL RECORD – SELECTED

2008 – liaised on Analyst J inquiry; finding entered as enemy action; case archived.
2008 – primary inquiry product reported lost in transit; no recording recovered.
2011 – off-books financing desk restructured under sole personal sign-off.
2026 – tasking pressure directed onto field officer Fateh; lure designated priority target.
2026 – domestic corridor audit signed clean; downstream trails closed.

THREAT LEVEL - CRITICAL (counterintelligence)

Sits atop money and tasking; compromise here corrupts product, not just operations.

STANDING ORDERS

Do not approach, brief, or task. Treat all financing and tasking product bearing his sign-off as suspect pending review. Compartment any Case-J material away from him entirely. Surveillance to be passive and deniable; he reads attention. Resolution, if any, runs through the single reader assessed able to catch his lone slip – not through open channels he controls.
