DECEASED

BACKGROUND

Punjabi Khatri, born 1953. Army commission, transferred to external intelligence mid-career; rose to Chief. File records a long clean ledger: no financial flags, no foreign entanglement, no disciplinary action across three decades. Reputation among subordinates as upright and austere, a man who carried decisions rather than delegated their weight.

SERVICE CHARACTER

Held that the nation occasionally requires acts no clean ledger will admit, and that a leader signs for them so no one beneath him must. Burdened rather than corrupt. Colleagues describe a conscience kept in private; the open record shows only competence and restraint.

SEALED — RESTRICTED ABOVE THIS COPY

TRUE PROVENANCE OF THE OFF-BOOKS [REDACTED] [SEALED]

TERMINAL PERIOD

Withdrew from active direction before death. The events of the 2007–2008 collapse — a unit's failure, an officer's disappearance, a child displaced — touched him personally but are recorded here as institutional misfortune, not personal fault. Cause and agency of his death are sealed.

LEGACY DISPOSITION

Invoked posthumously by serving officers as a moral benchmark. Subject Kaul in particular carries an inherited burden traced to this man. Treat all live references to Luthra as references to a memory the service measures itself against.

KNOWN ASSOCIATES

FIELD ASSET (M) ran the off-books unit; later went rogue with a child. Whereabouts contested.
FIELD ASSET (F) ran alongside the above; disappeared during the collapse, presumed staged.
THE PROTEGE Luthra's trained successor-figure; relationship turned. Now withdrawn to a H
THE INHERITOR serving officer who carries the unresolved guilt of Luthra's tenure.

TRAINING

Infantry-officer grounding before transfer to external intelligence. Trained in agent direction, deniable-operation authorization, and inter-service liaison. No field tradecraft of note in later years; his instrument was the signature, not the pistol. Schooled in the older doctrine that command absorbs the moral cost of what it orders.

CAPABILITIES

At peak, authority to stand up and fund deniable units outside the standing books, and the institutional cover to keep them invisible. Strong internal trust, wide protege network, lasting moral influence over officers he shaped. Posthumously, his name still moves serving personnel – a lever of conscience rather than command.

OPERATIONAL RECORD – SELECTED

1953 – born, Punjab.
Army commission; transfer to R&AW mid-career.
Rose to Secretary (R) / Chief.
2007-2008 – collapse of a unit under his watch; officer vanished, child displaced (recorded as misfired).
Stepped back from active direction.
[DATE SEALED] – killed.

IDENTITY OF KILLER AND MOTIVE [REDACTED] [SEALED]

THREAT LEVEL - DORMANT

Subject deceased; residual risk is reputational and inherited, not operational.

STANDING ORDERS

Hold this file as historical-conscience reference, not active target. Do not disclose sealed lines to this readership. Any live operation tracing back to Luthra's tenure is to be flagged upward, not actioned at this clearance. Protect the integrity of his open record except where a sealed authority is lawfully unlocked.

AUTHORISED: Joint Secretary (Internal Records), R&AW
